ADVISORY: Media Conference Call
Friday, April 2nd, At NOON (EST)

ECONOMISTS TO ANALYZE JOBS REPORT
March Marks 3 Years Since Recession Began

Tomorrow's release of the March jobs report provides an opportunity to assess trends in the first three years of this business cycle to those in prior business cycles. Economists at the Economic Policy Institute offer analysis of the day's employment data and compare it to other recoveries to better understand why this business cycle is weak on jobs and wage income, but strong on profits and productivity.

Join EPI economists for a media conference call Friday, April 2, 2004 at Noon (EST) to speak with:

WHO: Lawrence Mishel, EPI president
Lee Price, research director
Jared Bernstein, senior economist

WHAT: Media Conference Call Analyzing the BLS Jobs Report

WHEN: Friday, April 2nd at NOON Eastern Time
